

WHUMP PLAYSHOP SERIES

So You Want To Tie People Up

P R A C T I C A L B O N D A G E F O R B E G I N N E R S

So you want to tie people up but you don't know where to start?

Rope bondage is beautiful, sensual, and versatile, but it can be intimidating to beginners. This short introductory class will show you a few simple knots and techniques that will allow you to restrain your partner in almost any way you can imagine.

In addition to technical skills, we'll talk about the "soft" skills required to put together a hot bondage scene. We'll start by considering intent: what kind of scene do you want to create, and what kind of interaction do you want to have with your partner? From there, we'll consider how to choose an appropriate position, and how to use the basic techniques we've taught you to put it all together.

We'll provide everything you need for the class, including practice rope. If you'd rather bring your own rope, we recommend one to four 15' lengths. Partners are handy, but not required.

This class is suitable for novices, but will also be useful to people with some rope bondage experience who are looking to extend and deepen their skills.

The Whump Playshop series is an integral part of the Whump at the Center for Sex Positive Culture. Although CSPC membership is required to attend Whump, non-members are welcome at the Playshop. Please come 15 minutes early and check in with the Event Coordinator.

Suspended Animation is a Seattle-based group that specializes in the kinetic art of full-suspension rope bondage.
